medieval art history has long emphasized the glories of the byzantine empire but less known are the profound artistic contributions of nubia egypt ethiopia and other powerful african kingdoms whose pivotal interactions with byzantium had an indelible impact on the medieval mediterranean world bringing together more than 170 masterworks in a range of media and techniques from mosaic sculpture pottery and metalwork to luxury objects panel paintings and religious manuscripts africa and byzantium recounts africa s centrality in transcontinental networks of trade and cultural exchange with incisive scholarship and new photography of works rarely or never before seen in public this long overdue publication sheds new light on the staggering artistic achievements of late antique africa it reconsiders northern and eastern africa s contributions to the development of the premodern world and offers a more complete history of the region as a vibrant multiethnic society of diverse languages and faiths that played a crucial role in the artistic economic and cultural life of byzantium and beyond volume 1 a and b covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events in the wake of the global covid 19 pandemic africa faced a unique set of challenges that sparked a profound spiritual response among its people wash and pray african theological discourse on covid 19 delves into the heart of this response exploring the intersections of faith culture history and the pandemic that gripped the world from 2019 to 2022 the book demonstrates that for many africans the pandemic was not just a medical crisis but also a spiritual battle as such the book invites the reader to witness the historicising of the pandemic in africa through this landmark resource for current and future generations ensuring that the narratives of african christianity in the face of covid 19 and other pandemics are not lost the chapter contributions offer diverse perspectives from ghana nigeria rwanda zimbabwe and the uk each contextualising the african christian response to the pandemic in essence this monograph paints a rich tapestry of african theological discourse during a global crisis ultimately affirming that faith and science when harmonised can lead to a resilient and thriving community this handbook explores the central theme of christian faith from various disciplinary approaches and different contexts of black experience in the united states the central unifying theme is freedom an important concept both in american culture and christianity african american theology represents a christian understanding of god s freedom and the good news of god s call for all humankind to enter life true human identity and moral responsibility in genuine and just community contributors to the volume argue that african american theology highlights how racism and other intersecting forms of oppression complicate the human predicament and that their eradication requires an expansion of salvation to include the liberation of persons who lack full participation in society and enjoyment of the good and goods made possible by that society the essays in this handbook employ the tools of biblical criticism history cultural and social analysis religious studies philosophy and systematic theology in order to explore and assess the nature and impact of race ethnicity gender sexuality class immigration and cultural and moral pluralism in america as well as the intersections between african american and african diasporan religious thought and life preachers often think of prophetic preaching in the caricature of the prophet as the lonely outsider confronting the congregation often angrily with the congregation s complicity in social injustice and with a bracing call for repentance the twenty seven essays and sermons in this book offer a different perspective by viewing prophetic preaching specifically and ministry practical theology and theological education more broadly as pastoral care for the community in prophetic perspective such preaching does indeed bring a critical theological analysis of justice concerns to the center of the sermon but in such a way as to invite the congregation to consider how the move toward justice is a pastoral move that is a move that seeks to build up community rather than contributing to the polarization so rampant in today s social world the preacher seeks to help the congregation build bridges along which concern for justice can travel the contributions honor the work of the late dale andrews a scholar of preaching and practical theology at the divinity school vanderbilt university whose seminal work inspires the notions of prophetic care and building bridges to justice
